

DestinyDads

Educate, Equip and Enrich Relationships

About Destiny Dads

Dads have a desire to form meaningful bonds with their children. Unfortunately, many fathers face significant obstacles in their role as a parent. Damascus Way has created a fathering program named Destiny Dads, intended to serve and support fathers in Scott County.

Destiny Dads will work with fathers to create a new vision of what relationships with their children can look like. Our foundation is built upon hearing your story, having meaningful conversations and accessing helpful information all with the intention of empowering and enriching you as a dad. We invite you to join us in growing as dads who are destined to prosper relationships with your children, impacting generations to come!
